

Evaluation grid for the individual assignment: write-up of 1 blog post

Name student
Course	3.3 Economic policy in the EU
Study year	2014-2015
Date
Evaluator
Presentation of the post	Achieved score	Maximum possible score per element	Comments
The blog article has a clear structure (introduction, main part, and conclusion)		10
The readability of the blog article is good: there is a clear topic selected; the title is matching and attractive; and good use of any sub-paragraphs The reader is attracted to read the whole text		5
Text is concise and to the point		5
There is an effective use of visuals that link well to the text (images, graphs, tables)		5
Referencing is done appropriately The used sources are referenced and are relevant, up to date and reliable and it is clear which 2 literature sources form the basis.		10
The use of English language doesn't obstruct the readability of the text. Grammar, vocabulary is correct.		5
		40
Content of the post			Comments
Critical reflection on the basis of what has been learned in class/from the literature The writer is able to reproduce/critically think about the economic insights learned in class/from the literature		20
The insights offered are original /refreshing The writer has been able to go beyond the mandatory literature/in class discussions and comes with original/refreshing insights		10
The choice of subject is daring The writer shows ambition by choosing one of the more difficult subjects		10
Argumentation		10

The writer makes his/her opinion clear and backs this up by well-thought through argumentation
Use of economic terminology At least 4 terms from the word list are correctly applied		10
		60
		100
Final comments			